"Corporate Social Responsibility" or CSR for short is the social responsibility of companies as part of sustainable business. It comprises social, ecological and economic aspects. Whether occupational safety, employee satisfaction, energy efficiency or minimum standards in the supply chain - many CSR fields of action are decisive for corporate success.

EcoVadis is a certification body and platform that provides CSR ratings of suppliers for global supply chains.

Over 55,000 companies use EcoVadis to reduce risks, promote innovation and create trust and transparency between business partners.
